NEGLECTED OPPORTUNITIES.

If the people of Amador county had taken advantage of the wealth of resources which nature has laid at their feet, this section would be today one of the most populous and thrifty in the state. As it is, we are lagging far behind in the race of progress. We have relied too much upon the storehouse of gold which nature has hidden beneath our soil, and neglected other sources of industry scarcely less important. Nature has lavished her favors here, but there has been a lamentable backwardness in utilizing them for profit. We have riches in our sunlight, in our invigorating air, in our mountain streams, in our forests, and in our fertile soil, and what use have we made of them. The Canaan of old, that recompensed the Israelites for forty years of wanderings in the wilderness, was not to be compared in its attractiveness with this foothill paradise. We lack nothing, except the spirit to grasp our wonderful possibilities. We have not taken the trouble to tell the outside world of blessings which have been showered upon us with so lavish a hand. The popular idea of this gold-bearing region held by strangers is that it is a barren waste; that outside of its mineral resources, it is a land to be shunned as a place of permanent abode. These libels have passed without adequate correction, and are actually believed by the masses of intending immigrants. After over half a century of contact with civilization, pouring out wealth in such abundance that marked the dawn of a new era, it seems incredible that such erroneous ideas should be generally entertained. Even down in the southern part of the state, if a visitor from the east asks about the northern section, he is informed that outside of gold mining there is nothing to invite the home-seeker in the mountains or foothills.

IMPORT OF HOME PRODUCTS.

Some idea of the local trade that is lost without any good reason therefor may be gained from the following fact. One business house in Jackson has bought ten thousand dozen of eggs from the outside within a year. Reckoning them at 20 cents a dozen, this represents an outlay of $2,000. A merchant prefers to deal with home producers. He would of course buy of his customers if they had the product to sell. That he buys outside is because he is unable to get the quantity in the county. The demand for eggs is far greater than home ranchers and poultry raisers can supply. From one house sufficient money is sent abroad in this product alone to maintain a family all the year round. And this county is as well adapted for chicken raising as any other portion of the state. The industry ought to thrive here. The climate is ideal; and there is money in the business when properly conducted. It is the same in regard to poultry. Thousands of dollars are sent every year from Jackson alone to enrich outside poultrymen. In this branch of business, eggs and poultry, a dozen additional families might live in comfort from the trade of the county seat. In many other lines the same lack of energy prevails. The foothill section ought to be a heavy exporter of such products, instead of a heavy importer. It is hoped the railroad will change all this, and lead to the incoming of families that will develop these business openings. Amador people have need to awaken to the opportunities that lie around them. It is no use to say the field is uninviting and unprofitable. It pays elsewhere in California, and the conditions in Amador county are as favorable for such enterprises as elsewhere in the state.

Our cotemporary, the Dispatch, wants the supervisors to oil the lone road, notwithstanding the fact that the advent of the railroad will take nine-tenths of the travel therefrom. After the disastrous experience of last year in this line, when between $2000 and $3000 of public money was thrown away in oiling this roadway, the suggestion is very suggestive. The people will ask themselves why the Dispatch advocates the frittering away of the county money in any such way. It certainly cannot be from a desire to protect the public interests. Is it for political reasons, to get the supervisors of the districts concerned into disfavor with their constituents. The Ledger has sufficient confidence in the judgment of the supervisors that they will decline following such pernicious advice.

QUALITY vs. QUANTITY.

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properties to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia, belching, sour stomach, weak heart, etc. Sold by W. H. Boydson.

THE RAILROAD TERMINUS.

In face of the difference of opinion that prevails regarding the location of the railroad terminus at Oneida or Jackson, it may not be out of place to state what the articles of incorporation call for. The franchise was based upon the statement of the terminal points as defined in their petition for a franchise. It is more than probable that the end of the road will remain at or near Martell's for some time. But can the company shelve the obligation of coming to Jackson indefinitely. The incorporation papers defined the route as follows:

Commencing at Ione, and running thence by a practical and feasible route to Jackson in said Amador county and thence by a feasible and practical route in a northerly direction to Sutter Creek.

The question is, under the circumstances, can the company stop short of Jackson and Sutter Creek. If we are not mistaken, the company is to complete the road to the terminal points mentioned in five years, under the franchise. Failing to do so what would be the outcome? Would they not be liable to a forfeiture of the charter? Notwithstanding the difficulties in getting a right of way, we do not believe the company wants to get out of its contract to bring the railroad to Jackson. It may be delayed for a while, for financial or other reasons, but within the time limit we have no doubt the road will be in operation to the county seat.

There is an upheaval in the state board of dental examiners. It is charged that examination questions have been sold or given away to favored ones prior to the examination. There are two factions in this as in many other boards, and the charges are the result of factional squabbles. We are free to say that the secretary and ex-president of the board, Dr. Herrick, of this town, will not be implicated in any of the alleged irregularities. The granting of temporary permits to practice was in conformity with the law as it existed prior to the last legislature. Such permits are now abolished, and it is necessary to pass a successful examination, and be awarded a diploma, before entering upon the practice of dentistry in this state. There is a strong movement to do away with the annual $2 fee exacted from all practicing dentists. This small fee has placed the board on a self-sustaining basis, as all such boards ought to be. Since Dr. Herrick became secretary, the revenue from this source has been largely increased, and the board placed on a good financial basis. Now, it is proposed to change the system of maintenance, and throw the cost upon the taxpayers at large. The revenue at present is not sufficient to encourage extravagance in any way, but with the state treasury backing the expenses of the board, a different state of affairs might result. Keep the board of dental examiners on a self-supporting basis, and extend this principle to all other boards if possible. There is more scope for reform in this direction than in divesting the dental examiners of their self-sustaining character.

Jackson is not envious of any town, or any section of Amador county. It has no reason to be. It is the paramount town—the most prosperous and populous. The spirit of jealousy is indulged in other communities, not here. Communities partake of the characteristics of individuals. As jealousy is a universal trait of human nature, towns show it the same as individuals. This is particularly the case towards a county seat town, if it happens to be, like Jackson, the dominating town in the county. Because it is the seat of government many hug the delusion that that fact has mainly contributed to its growth, hence the jealousy. The idea is wrong, nevertheless it exist. So long as it manifests itself in idle talk it can be safely passed by in silence. But when the spirit is exhibited in a representative body, to the extent of ignoring the plain path of duty as well as justice, it is high time to call attention to it. This the Ledger has done, and will continue to do, and has no apologies to make for its course.

The anti-saloon league of Ione publishes a card in the Echo thanking assemblyman C. H. McKinney for his efforts in passing the law excluding the sale of intoxicants within two miles of the Preston school. This change in the law, smuggled unwittingly through the legislature has accomplished what the anti-saloonists have tried in vain to accomplish. The saloons are all closed as far as the liquor business is concerned. They were expecting that a test case would be made in Folsom, but the district attorney says there will be nothing of the kind; that every violation of the law will be prosecuted.

JACKSON SCHOOL REPORT.

For the school year 1904-5. The following items are taken from my yearly principal's report: There were but 154 days of actual school session during the year, although school began Sept. 12, 1904 and did not close till June 16, 1905. There were (not counting the long intermission between the fall and spring terms) twenty-six holidays, including institute week, 358 pupils—182 boys and 176 girls—were enrolled during the year. The average daily attendance was 272 and the per cent was 95.2. Visitors in all departments were as follows: County Superintendent, 11 visits; trustees 15; others, 108. 95 new volumes were added to the school library, making a total of 486 volumes. The list of promotions will be published next week.

THE MINE WRECKERS.

Ferdinand Saroni and W. C. Mitchell, who were arrested for wrecking the Angels mine with dynamite, have been held to answer before the superior court of Calaveras county.

The defense presented no evidence at the preliminary examination, according to a report published in the Stockton Independent, which contains the following additional information:

"Charles Holmes, who confessed to the sheriff and district attorney, after becoming frightened, was on the stand for about five hours. He went into all of the details of the case from the time he was asked to participate in it until the men were arrested. He stated that it was on May 20th that Saroni learned that he was to be discharged. Mitchell was conferred with and the proposition of wrecking the mine was hatched.

"The witness went on to say that plans were outlined and he was to do a certain portion of the work. He did not spare himself and told in detail everything that he had done and as much as he knew of the acts of Saroni and Mitchell. The drilling of the holes and setting of the charges were described minutely by Holmes. At the time he did not appear to understand the seriousness of what he was doing, but later he became frightened and confessed his part of the affair.

"He stated that on May 30th the miners were moved to another point in the mine so that the work of drilling could be carried on without any one discovering it. Later in the day the men were returned to where they had been working but foreman Saroni informed them that the mine was dangerous at that particular point and they were sent away again.

"On May 30th Mitchell made the remark in the hearing of the book-keeper that there would be something doing, and he was questioned but managed to avert suspicion by fooling the officers of the mine. On June 5th he again said to have made numerous remarks, which may have some bearing on the case.

"After the testimony was closed bail for each of the men was fixed at $5000 and on their failure to give it they were remanded to the custody of the sheriff. The bail before the preliminary was $3000 but the justice decided to increase the amount owing to the evidence brought out."

A NEW INDUSTRY.

William Froelich, who was last week on a visit to his daughter and sister, Mrs. Krennel, near Martell's station, informs us that he is preparing to start a brand new industry at Kingsburg, Fresno county, not far from Fresno. He with a number of others have formed a company, and are putting up a $25,000 plant for the purpose of engaging in the manufacture of grape syrup on a large scale. We understand there is not another industry of this character in the state, and this new venture promises a big reward to the enterprising promoters, and is likely to open up a flourishing industry in that section of the state.

TRACTION ENGINE BARRED.

The props have all been taken out from under the main Broadway bridge, by orders of supervisor Strohm. The reason for this action is that permission was given to take the heavy machinery for the Standard Company to Electro, but when that was hauled, the traffic by traction engine would be stopped. It is claimed and rightly too, that the traction engine cuts up our streets, damages the bridges and culverts, and thereby throws extra burdens upon the road funds. The only way to stop it was to remove the props, and forbid any more being placed under the bridge. The oil for the Zeila is now being hauled from the depot at Martell's by team.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitutional and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

The State of California has for ten years or more been paying thousands of dollars in salaries of code commissioners charged with the duty of simplifying our civil and criminal procedure, but none of them has earned his salt. The only instance when the public ever heard of a code commissioner's doing any work was the recent case where John F. Davis succeeded in fuddling the law concerning the sale of liquor within one mile of State University property, so that to day nobody knows whether San Francisco is legally wet or dry.—Stockton Mail.

THE RAILROAD PROGRESS.

There are but a few men employed on the Ione and Eastern railroad. These are chiefly at work in the Oneida valley extending the line to the mill. The company is under agreement to furnish all facilities of delivering and receiving freight to the Oneida. Beyond this however, little or no work has been done. The talk of extending the line to Jackson seems to be premature. It looks very doubtful whether the track will be laid any nearer to this town than the Oneida mine for a long time. It is expected to lay the side track, etc., this week. The entire road has been ballasted for traffic and it is reported the line will be opened for general traffic, passenger and freight, by the 1st of July. Considerable freight in car load lots is arriving at the depot daily, principally oil and lumber for the various mines.

The Amador Record thinks the grand jury should take up the matter of the continual squabbles at Amador City between the union and non union elements. It is claimed that the mother shot the deceased, and then the father went to Stockton at the time so as to prove an alibi. This was successful at the coroner's inquest, and saved the pair from arrest at the time. The body has been exhumed, and a bullet found in the remains. Chas. H. MINING NOTES.

Mitchell.—Work has been started on this mine, near Pine Grove. A small force is engaged in cleaning out the shaft, doubtless for the purpose of enabling the property to be inspected. It is not claimed that the mine has been actually sold. That will probably depend upon whether the intending purchasers are satisfied with the prospects in the underground workings. It is conceded the most likely quartz mine in that region. It has surrendered gold in paying quantities in the past, and those who have worked in it are of the opinion that there is lots of the precious metal left within its boundaries. It has only been prospected to the depth of between 200 and 300 feet.

Wheeler Gravel.—The men who took the contract to excavate the bedrock flume for this gravel proposition at Pine Grove, we are informed, quit work a few days ago. They ran across a harder formation than they had anticipated.

NOTICE.

All parties desiring to contest for the prizes offered by the Committee for drilling rock and the bicycle race on the fourth of July, are requested to send in their names with entrance fee to the secretary not later than the 1st of July.

By order of Committee.

CARD OF THANKS.

Camauche, June 19.
Editor of the Ledger.—Please express through the columns of your paper, my appreciation of the votes on my behalf in the Portland contest. Being unable to make an active "campaign," it is a great source of pleasure to me to have friends support me so loyally. A delightful trip is promised, yet no part of it shall be more treasured in my memory than the spirit expressed by the voters. May I prove entirely worthy of their esteem; that is my wish. I shall do my utmost to be a fit representative of this district.

Gratefully yours,

THE STAPLES' CASE.

To-morrow morning is set for passing sentence upon F. N. Staples, convicted of murder in the first degree for the killing of his wife by means of poison on the 31st of August last.

The only judgment the court can pronounce in the case, under the verdict, is the death penalty. This can only be averted by the court granting a new trial, or a delay in pronouncing judgment at the request of the defendant's counsel. The attorney for the defense will present a bill of exceptions, upon which they will move for a new trial. If this is not granted, they will take an appeal to the supreme court. The papers upon which the motion will be based are very voluminous, and it is probable a stay of proceedings will be asked for on the ground that the documents are not completed.

Persons afflicted with piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. Sold by W. H. Boydston.

Additional Locals.

Mrs. L. Moon arrived from Bisbee, Arizona, Sunday evening, for a visit with relatives, and for health's sake.

If you want to get the best value in Amador county go to the Jackson department store.

The Chiu-Beretta Optical Co. will have an expert at Boydston's pharmacy next Wednesday for the examination of eyes, and the fitting of glasses. This is a reliable and responsible company, and should command a liberal share of patronage.

There is a noticeable increase in the number of traveling men and solicitors in Jackson. Whether this is due to the railroad, we cannot say. Book canvassers, insurance men, and peddlers of every kind are coming daily. And when the railroad is in operation we may expect this class largely to increase.

Herbert Jones, a rustling canvasser for C. E. Weber & Co., dealer in school supplies, is in Jackson this week. He visits the county once a year interviewing the school trustees in the various districts for the purpose of selling desks, maps, stationery, books, etc. And he manages to get something like $5000 worth of business every year in this county.

The board of education has been in session the past week in the preparing for and holding the examination for the graduation of pupils in the various districts. On Wednesday the examinations were conducted, each member of the board being assigned a district, as follows: Jackson, Geo. A. Gordon; Sutter Creek, Miss Vanne McLaughlin; Loma, V. H. Greenhalgh; Plymouth, Miss Alice Gartin; Volcano, Geo. F. Mack. On Thursday the board reassembled to pass up on the papers, and the applicants entitled to promotion. The result will be published next week.

David Gabarino, a native of Italy, declared his intention to become a citizen on May 29, and Chris Lubenko, a native of Austria, on June 9th.

Mrs. H. Boxall has been visiting Pine Grove for several days the past week, the guest Mrs. C. B. Calvin.

Miss Mamie Hall left Monday morning for San Francisco where she will enter Lane's hospital for the purpose of becoming a trained nurse.

The moonlight ball given by the Electra Athletic club at Electra last Saturday evening was the biggest affair of the kind for the season. The promoters had everything arranged to perfection, not a jar of any sort occurred to mar the harmony and success of the ball. It is estimated that there were from 250 to 300 persons present. At least 250 sat down to the supper, which was furnished by Frank Simich of the Union House. The music was by Renno's orchestra, and was very satisfactory. Everybody had a good time. Dancing was kept up till after sunrise.

Richard Harris, a native of England, was made a citizen in the superior court on June 1st, with Thomas Lemm and C. L. Culbert as his witnesses.

Postmaster F. H. Duden received his commission last Saturday. His bonds were at once approved, and the commission sent on. He does not wish to assume charge, however, until the first of next month, that being the commencement of another quarter. It will be some time thereafter before he gets the new outfit of lock-boxes, as they have to come from the east.

D. McCall has branched out as a railroad magnate, having purchased a large block of the stock of the Loma and Eastern company, his holding being said to be in excess of 40 per cent of the stock in the corporation. He is to become general manager of the road on July 1st.—Echo.

Maggie A. Clark has been granted a divorce from Thomas S. Clark, by the superior court of San Joaquin county, and the defendant was ordered to pay $25 per month alimony.

Commencement exercises of Jackson Grammar school will begin held at Love's Hall, Monday evening, July 3rd, 1905. An interesting program is being prepared. Exercises to begin at 8:15 p. m., sharp.

W. H. Greenhalgh came up last week from San Rafael to take part in the proceedings of the board of education, of which he is a member, his term expiring on the first of July. He is engaged in the real estate business near San Rafael. His health has much improved by the outdoor work, and he expects to remain there for another year or so.

There are unclaimed letters in the Jackson postoffice addressed as follows: Miekie Jay, Aguste Krumben, Luigi Navoni, Charles Rehnberg and Walter Shepherd.

It is understood that W. J. McGee will take charge of the Staples' case from now on; presenting the motion for a new trial, and conducting the case on appeal.

The Loma and Eastern railroad company have been appealed to to run an excursion train on the 4th to Jackson. They are disposed to look favorably on the proposition, and will comply if possible. The lack of cars is the main obstacle at present. It would be well to advertise the road for general traffic in this way, and the 4th of July would be a very desirable time for such an excursion.

Mr. Harris, the head of the International Correspondence School in this district was in Jackson this week, interviewing pupils. His headquarters are in Stockton. This is the largest school of the kind in the United States, and teaches by means of correspondence every branch of knowledge. There is a large number of scholars in this county, and several have reached positions of prominence and responsibility through the training received from this school.

The three days' bazaar given in Love's hall for the benefit of the Catholic church, was held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. There was a fine exhibition of articles for sale, and all sorts of amusements for capturing the dimes and dollars. The affair was liberally patronized, and a substantial sum realized for the church funds. The affair was managed from start to finish by the ladies of the church, and hence its gratifying success.

Bad Indeed.

Losing flesh is indeed a bad sign. Take Scott's Emulsion for it. For weak digestion, for defective nourishment, for consumption, take Scott's Emulsion. It restores flesh because it strikes to the cause of the loss.

LANCHA PLANA MURDERS.

This crime of crimes continues to be the leading topic of conversation throughout the county.

The body of the boy, Chester Maker, was found about a quarter of a mile from the house where his grandmother, Mrs. Phoebe Williams, was killed, and some fifty yards from the Mokelumne river. He was lying face downward with one arm under his head, as if it had been raised to protect his face.

The body was in a terrible state of decomposition. It had laid there exposed to the sun from Sunday night till Friday morning. Sheriff Norman on finding the body, did not attempt to shift it in any way, but allowed it to remain undisturbed until the corner and other officials reached the scene. The boy's hat was a few feet from the body, as though it had fallen from his head in a scuffle. The inroads of decomposition had broken the scalp on the back of the head, exposing the skull, and the natural division of the skull. To the onlooker this seemed like a fracture, and hence it was at first thought that the back of his head had been crushed in with a blow. There were two pools of blood near the body, and it is supposed that he did not yield his life without a struggle with his murderer. When the doctors arrived a critical examination was made. The body was turned, or rather rolled over, and it then became apparent how he came by his death.

A savage thrust in the throat with a sharp instrument, had severed the windpipe and artery and penetrated to the spinal column, as in the case of Mrs. Williams. There is scarcely a doubt that the same instrument and same hand inflicted the wounds in each case. The eyeballs were protruding, and the tongue was protruding, the teeth having punctured it in the death agonies. In the opinion of the physicians, the victim had been strangled into unconsciousness before the gash in the throat had been inflicted. The body was dressed in a pair of overalls, and the tennis shoes purchased in Loma the day before the murder were on his feet. Although decay had made his features unrecognizable, there was not the least question of his identity. The father, Leo Maker, was present and identified the boy, as well as others who knew him well. The spot where he lay was covered with the refuse from mining, without vegetation. There was no trail, and no dust or soft ground to reveal the imprints of human feet. It was some 50 yards from the river, and it is surmised that the murderers conducted the boy thither with the intention of throwing his body in the river. It was moonlight, and near by is a point frequented by fishing parties. A fishing party was there that night, and this fact it is thought frustrated the designs of the perpetrators in this direction.

There is little doubt that two men were involved in the murders. How young Maker was persuaded to accompany his slayers to the spot where his body was found is a matter of conjecture. To get to that place from the house of horror, it was not necessary to pass over or near any traveled road. They went away from the town, and as the Williams' house is the first dwelling on entering the village from the north-east, they took a south easterly direction toward the river, over the land belonging to J. H. Moore, and would not pass any human habitation. A trail leads to the Williams' house a short distance in this direction, and is then lost in the mass of stones and tallings.

The suspicion that the grandson was implicated in the killing of Mrs. Williams never had anything to rest upon beyond the mere fact of the boy's disappearance. The residents of Lancha Plana and vicinity never believed it for a moment. He was not that kind of a boy. He was unused to the ways of the world, inexperienced, had never visited a city until last October, when he went to see his father in Sacramento. Besides there was nothing vicious about him; he had never shifted for himself, and would naturally shrink from facing the world as an outcast.

Coroner Hubert held an inquest Friday afternoon before the following named jurors: John V. Rodgers, A. A. Demars, Henry A. Cavagnaro, John L. Lucas, J. F. Mulgrew, Philip J. Sheridan, Chas. W. Maroon, G. W. Humphreys, N. J. Diebold, J. C. Diebold.

A. F. Adams, postmaster at Lancha Plana, identified the body as that of Chester Maker.

Leo W. Maker, father of deceased, and an employee at the railroad shops at Sacramento, said the full name was Chester Earle Maker; he was 17 years old, and identified the body as that of his son.

John H. Sheldon, a mining engineer, said that in company with sheriff Norman he found the body that morning, a quarter of a mile southeast of Lancha Plana. It was lying face downward, and in a bad state of decomposition; looked around for a weapon, but found none.

Dr. Gall, assisted by Dr. Endicott, held an autopsy; the cause of death was a deep incised wound, about three and a half inches long, extending across the throat from right to left, tending slightly downward; found no marks of violence about the head, wound could not be self-inflicted unless by left-handed person.

The jury returned a verdict that deceased came to his death by wound made by a knife or some sharp instrument, entirely severing the windpipe and facial artery, inflicted by some person or persons unknown.

The funeral took place in Loma on Saturday morning, the remains being deposited by the side of his grandmother.

That the motive of the double tragedy was robbery is generally conceded. That Mrs. Williams should have been found partially dressed when the murderous attack was made is explained by her daughter, Mrs. A. York, who says that it was the habit of her mother to take her shoes off early in the evening, and lay on the bed to rest. It was a warm evening. It is thought that she fell asleep, and was asleep when the death throes were given. She was a heavy sleeper. The belief is that the same man who killed Mrs. Williams was the one who killed the boy Maker to come home by ringing of the bell was given by the murderers and the pillow was placed over the face of the dead to conceal the ghastly room, the candle dots opened into the chamber of death. The fact that nothing was disturbed indicating a search for money would indicate that the men did not know where the money was, and may have summoned Maker home for the purpose of getting him to tell them. Had he known that his grandmother was killed there would have been an outcry and a struggle with the possibility of rousing the neighbors and revealing the identity of the slayers. The cut throats are supposed to have been identified by Maker, and hence they resolved to compel him to go with them to the lonely spot by the river bank and close his eyes in death as they had done with his grandmother.

The amount of plunder secured as a result of this tragedy is thought to have been small. Mrs. York said her mother never had any quantity of money in the house; she was saving and economical to pay her way; and this was about all she could do. She thinks she did not have more than $10 at the time. It was customary not to draw the money for the cattle sold at once, instructing the boy not to take more than $5 or $10 on account.

Whether this was to avoid the chance of robbery is not known. There was an idea with some that the old lady had considerable money. Young Maker it is said had $45 or $50 of his own, and unlike his grandmother, was inclined to be talkative. Perhaps it was this money the murderers were after, and called him home to tell of it, whereabout. In May, 1900, Mrs. Williams executed a trust deed to her daughter, Mrs. A. York conveying all her real property in Lancha Plana, consisting of 160 acres of the village, and six lots within the townsite, comprising the dwelling house and land adjacent thereto. This deed was placed in the hands of J. W. Surface and sons, bankers of Loma, and held by them up to the time of the death of Mrs. Williams. The trust deed instructed Mrs. York to make a deed of the property to Chester Maker when he reached the age of 21 years. It was the purpose of the trust that this conveyance be made at the time stated, no matter whether Mrs. Williams be living or dead. After the funeral of the old lady last week, the deed was sent over to Mrs. York. It is now in the hands of the officers. How the death of the boy will affect the disposition of the property is not clear. The property is not of much value. All told Mrs. Williams is assessed for real and personal property, for $545. It may be worth twice that sum, but that is the outside limit.

Sheriff Norman, assisted by constable Kelly of Loma and the constable of Clements, have been untiring in their efforts to unravel this mystery. Night and day they have worked, running down every clue that gave the least promise of a solution. On Tuesday, on information sent from the authorities here, three men were arrested in and near San Andreas, and lodged in the county jail there. Wednesday morning sheriff Norman and district attorney Vicini went over to San Andreas to interview the suspects, in the hope of getting some tangible clue to work on. They were all half breeds, and one of them has recently been released from state prison. One of the men was brought to Jackson the same evening, and lodged in jail. His name is Dan Barry. Neither he nor the other two arrested are residents of Amador county. They belong to Calaveras county, and live some six miles from San Andreas, on the Calaveras river. What evidence the officers have against the one in jail we do not know. Whether they suspected of being concerned in the murders himself, or of having a knowledge of facts connected with the tragedies which might lead to the identity of the guilty ones, we cannot say. The officers are wisely not telling all they know; at the same time newspaper correspondents on the outside are telling a great deal more than they know. The latter fact has hampered the officers in their efforts to ferret out the case.

The murderers left not the slightest trace behind them. They seem to have done their bloody work in a methodical manner. Even the positions in which the dead were found are believed by the officers to have been not accidental. Mrs. Williams' throat was cut, they believe, not as she lay upon her back on the bed, but when her face was turned downward. In this way the knife-wielder would avoid getting his hands and clothing soiled in the blood of his victim. After the life fluid had been let out, the body was turned over on its back, the hands placed as they were found, and the pillow over the face. The same precautions were taken in young Maker's murder. The fatal cut was made as the body lay prostrate upon the ground, face downward. The head was lifted up to enable the knife to be plunged into the throat. It is with such calculating villains the officers have to deal.

A few days ago W. Crail searching in the vicinity of the spot where the body of Maker was found, picked up a white handled pocket knife. On inquiry we are told that little importance is attached to this discovery. The blade is rusty, and seemingly the instrument has not been used for a long time. It is not claimed the find cuts any figure in the commission or the elucidation of the crime.

The other two parties arrested at San Andreas were discharged from custody Wednesday. Sheriff Norman returned home Wednesday, but left again the following morning, and is still out.

The Indian, Dan Barry, was the man who was seen about 11:30 the night of the murder below Lancha Plana and who, apparently to avoid meeting Mrs. Adams and others who were returning from an entertainment, passed out of the roadway and disappeared. It was this circumstance that directed suspicion to him. This, we are informed, has been fully explained. Barry was on a white horse, traveling toward the Indian camp. He left the roadway at the point, to go to the camp, that being the most direct route. The footprints of shoes similar to those worn by young Maker, together with the divergence of this man, who now turns out to have been Barry, awakened suspicions. But as far as the Indian is concerned he has accounted for his whereabouts and conduct, and he will not likely be held any longer.

IT'S UP TO YOU, MY SON.

There are two trails in life, my boy. One leads to height and fame, To honor, glory, peace and joy, And one to depths of shame. And you can reach that glorious height— Its honors can be won— Or you can grope in shame's dark night— It's up to you, my son.

One trail is strewn with labor's flowers, With sharp thorns here and there; One leads through wicked pleasure bowers That to the eye are fair.

One trail ascends, and day by day You climb—you cannot run— And one is downhill all the way— It's up to you, my son.

Stern duty guards the upper trail, Exact obedience, too, And he who treads it cannot fail To win, if he be true.

But fickle Folly, gay with smiles, Rules o'er the other one, And leads to ruin with her wiles— It's up to you, my son.

At partings of the trails you stand, At early manhood's gate; Your future lies in your own hand— Will it be low or great?

If now you choose the trail of right, When you the height have won You'll bask your honor's faded light— It's up to you, my son.

There is a Difference.

The difference between Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar and all other Cough Syrups is that it moves the bowels, thus expelling a cold from the system. This relaxes the nerve tissues and by its healing effect on the throat and lungs the cough is relieved—cured entirely. Kennedy's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar and contains no opiates. Good alike for young or old. Tastes good. Sold by W. H. Boydston.

FROM HEAD TO FOOT

You feel the good that's done by Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cleanses, regulates and invigorates Stomach, Liver and Bowels and so purifies the blood. And through the blood, it cleanses, repairs, and invigorates the whole system. In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fever, or other exhausting diseases, nothing equals it as an appetizing, restorative tonic to build up needed flesh and strength. It rouses every organ into natural action, promotes all the bodily functions, and restores health and vigor.

For every disease that comes from foul or weak Stomach, a torpid Liver or impure Blood, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Bileousness, and the most stubborn Skin, Scalp, or Scrofulous affections, the "Discovery" is a sovereign remedy. Don't be hypnotized, wheedled, or over-persuaded into accepting a substitute only that some selfish medicine seller may make a greater profit on the inferior article. The "Discovery" has a great record of nearly forty years with thousands of cures behind it.

Dear Sir—Several years ago my blood became impoverished and I became run down in health. I had no appetite, could not sleep, and was practically unfitted for work. Suffered from lumbago, rheumatism and was in bad shape. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery relieved me of my wretched condition. The medicine built up my system and restored me to a normal condition of health. I can speak most highly also, of Dr. Pierce's Free Preparation, as it has been used in my family for years in cases of female trouble.
